Shanghai

Business Discovery trip

Gifts, Home & Lifestyle

10 - 15 November 2026

Dolina Global

Introduction

More than a business trip. Expert support on the ground.

The Shanghai Home & Lifestyle Business Mission is not a guided tour of China.
It is a hands-on business experience that helps New Zealand's growing product businesses explore sourcing opportunities with the right expertise by their side.

We will work with each business before the trip to understand its objectives and sourcing priorities, then provide practical, on-the-ground support throughout the mission, from the Shanghai Gift & Home Show and factory visits to supplier communication and negotiations.

The support doesn't end when you leave Shanghai!
After the mission, Dolina Global will help you evaluate the opportunities you have uncovered and define the right next steps for your business.

Objectives

01. Explore with purpose

Discover products, materials, and trends with your own business objectives and sourcing needs in mind.

02. Go beyond the trade show

Visit selected factories and gain a firsthand understanding of suppliers, products, and production, not simply what you see at an exhibition.

03. Have an expert beside you

Benefit from Dolina Global's China expertise, language, and business-culture knowledge while communicating with suppliers and navigating potential opportunities.

04. Make better business decisions

Come home with more than contacts and business cards, with recommendations, clearer opportunities, and a practical plan for what to do next.

What's Included

Support before, during, and after the mission.

01 Before the Mission — PREPARE

Start with a clear plan.

An individual consultation will define your business objectives and sourcing priorities, followed by a personalised trip plan and group preparation session with practical advice before departure.

02 During the Mission — EXPLORE

Experience the market first-hand.

Explore the Shanghai Gift & Home Show, discover new products, trends, materials, and visit selected factories relevant to your business.
Throughout the mission, Dolina Global will be by your side to support supplier communication, translation, local business practices, and negotiations.
Accommodation and local travels within the programme are included.

03 After the Mission — TAKE ACTION

Turn opportunities into next steps.

After the trip, an individual follow-up consultation will help you evaluate potential opportunities and define your next steps, with additional supplier communication support available if required.

PROPOSED AGENDA

Day 1: Arrival in Shanghai, Trade registration, Group briefing

Day 2-3: Shanghai Gift & Home Show · Supplier meetings · Product & trend discovery

Day 4: Curated factory visits

Day 5: Individual programme, cultural experience (optional), closing dinner and departure to Auckland

The final programme will be tailored to participating businesses and confirmed closer to the mission.

Why Dolina Global?

More than 13 years of real trade experience

Working with Chinese manufacturers is about far more than finding a supplier online.

It requires understanding business culture, asking the right questions, recognising quality, and building relationships that last.

Irina combines over 13 years of international trade experience with Chinese language and cultural expertise to help New Zealand businesses source with greater confidence and make better business decisions.

Investment

NZ$2,499/per business incl.GST*

A tailored business mission with individual attention and a programme built around your business objectives.

Places are intentionally limited to provide meaningful, hands-on support throughout the mission.

*Excluding International flights and meals
Factory visits are arranged according to your objectives, with extra costs discussed and agreed in advance if any

NOT JUST A TRIP TO CHINA. A BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY.
